

BETS MORE INTENSE

Interest in the Scott Jackson Trial Growing.

POLICY OF THE PROSECUTION.

Eleven Witnesses Examined Yesterday. Among Them Being the Mother and Brother of the Dead Girl—Decision by Judge Helm—Jackson Showed Pallor During the Evidence.

NEWPORT, Ky., April 24.—Interest in the trial for the murder of Pearl Bryan grows more intense daily. This is attested by the thronged lobbies in the courtroom, the punctual daily attendance of members of the bar from both sides of the river and the unremitting attention of all present. Eleven witnesses were examined yesterday, two in the morning and nine in the afternoon. The policy of the prosecution is to present the case in the order of time as nearly as possible. The defense has by cross-examination indicated that its line will be to create doubt as to where Pearl Bryan was killed, leaving it an open question whether or not she was killed in Ohio and afterward transferred to Kentucky and there beheaded.

Dr. J. O. Jenkins, who assisted in the post mortem, was recalled and cross-examined by Mr. Crawford. Dr. Fishback, who also assisted in the post mortem, was the next witness introduced. He said that the body indicated that the dead woman was in perfect health, as all of the organs were in perfect order, and the external appearance was almost perfect.

The testimony by Mayor Caldwell Wednesday which the defense desired stricken out was that part in which he related that when Walling and Jackson were brought together before him in private, Walling said in Jackson's hearing that Jackson had told him of his rouble with Pearl Bryan, that he first proposed to kill her with some quick poison, cut her body up and drop it in sewers, piecemeal. Jackson then spoke up: "Walling, how can you talk that way, you know you killed her." Then each accused the other. Attorney Crawford argued this was using Walling as a witness against Jackson with whom he was jointly indicted, which is inadmissible in Kentucky courts.

Decision by the Judge.
Judge Helm delivered his decision at the opening of the afternoon session. He said:

In reference to striking out the portion of Mayor Caldwell's testimony about Walling's statement in Jackson's presence, you will determine by Jackson's conduct when Walling confessed in Jackson's presence, his own knowledge of the crime and his complicity in it whether this conduct was equivalent to an admission by Jackson of his own guilt or complicity in the crime.

The defense has taken numerous exceptions to the ruling of the court. Colonel Crawford has 50 exceptions. His motions and objections have been overruled quite that number of times.

Girl's Mother on the Stand.

Of the nine witnesses examined in the afternoon the testimony of Mrs. A. S. Bryan, the mother of Pearl, was full of pathos. When asked how she was able to identify the headless girl, sent to Greencastle, as her own Pearl, she answered with thrilling effect:

"It's difficult for a mother to be deceived about recognizing her own child."

She identified bloodstained garments, shoes, trinkets, as those of her murdered child. She also testified that Pearl had never been away from home except on a 3-months' trip with her to Kansas, that Scott Jackson was seldom a visitor to her home, that Will Wood introduced him first, that she herself was absent last year from March till July with an invalid daughter in New Mexico, that Pearl was the only housekeeper for her father, brothers and two little nephews while she was absent.

The Brother's Testimony.

Fred Bryan's testimony showed that Pearl had serious home duties and but little experience with the world, also that Will Wood first introduced Scott Jackson to Pearl not long before her mother started on her 4-months' visit to New Mexico. Both mother and son testified that Jackson's visits to the Bryan home were not frequent and that he never took Pearl buggying during the Bryan home. Both admitted that Pearl was often at Greencastle and might have met Jackson there at intervals.

Finding of the Hat.

Another impressive witness was Mary Morgan, who first found Pearl's hat near her home back of Newport. The blood stained handkerchief found in the hat by Mr. Morgan was in evidence and was identified by this witness. She found the hat on Sunday, Feb. 2, and thinks it was hidden on the day before.

Dr. W. T. Littler, of Leesburg, Ky., was a medical student and roomed in the same building with Jackson and Walling. He testified that Jackson had called upon him about Jan. 23 to settle a dispute about the effect of cocaine. He also saw Jackson and Walling in consultation in the McNevin boarding-house the night Jackson was arrested.

It was also proven by J. H. Ulen that he sold Jackson 17 grains of cocaine on Jan. 29.

Allen Jones Johnson, a colored porter at Wallingford's saloon, testified to seeing Jackson and Walling at the saloon Friday night, Jan. 18, and that a young girl was there with Jackson and they went away together in a hack. He also testified that Mr. Sheppard, Walling's attorney had offered to make it better for him to stay away from this trial than to attend it and had told him the courts could not compel him to go to Kentucky to testify. The testimony of other witnesses corroborated evidence already given.

Jackson showed pallor yesterday, especially when the Bryans were on the stand.

QUAY CONVENTION.

Pennsylvania Republicans Launch the Senator's Presidential Boom.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 24.—Representatives of the Republicans of Pennsylvania assembled here in convention yesterday and formally launched the boom of United States Senator M. S. Quay for the presidential nomination. This feat was accomplished amid scenes of much turbulence.

Men ordinarily sedate lost their tempers and said harsh things to each other, and at least one distinguished gentleman made demonstrations of violence.

The violent scenes were the result of the efforts of the anti-Quay delegates to secure the adoption of a resolution naming McKinley as the second choice of the convention. After an exciting debate the proposition was defeated by a vote of 178 to 65.

The convention nominated the slated candidates for congressmen-at-large and selected the delegates and electors-at-large named by the caucus. The platform drawn up by Senator Quay's friends was adopted without material change. In fact, it was a Quay convention all through, although those opposed to that gentleman made things lively on the floor of the convention and in the committee room.

ANARCHIST RELEASED.

Man Who Conspired to Kill Judge Gary of Chicago Is Free.

CHICAGO, April 24.—John Hronek, an alleged anarchist who was convicted in July, 1888, on the charge of conspiracy to kill Judge Gary and Julius S. Grinnell and sentenced to 12 years in the penitentiary, has been released. Hronek, it was claimed, in order to be revenged upon Judge Gary and Mr. Grinnell for the part they took in the conviction of the Haymarket anarchists made dynamite for the purpose of blowing them to eternity. His sentence, owing to the time made by good behavior, expired Saturday. He expects to make his home here with his wife. He is 36 years old.

EIGHT-HOUR MOVEMENT.

Mr. Gompers Says Half a Million Tollers Will Make the Demand.

PITTSBURGH, April 24.—President Gompers was in Pittsburgh yesterday in conference with the local leaders of the American Federation of Labor. In an interview he stated that the 8-hour movement was now paramount in the minds of labor leaders. He said over half a million tollers would make the demand for a shorter day on May 1, and that most of them would get it without a struggle. In some trades the hours will be reduced to only nine hours, as it is not the desire of the federation to precipitate any changes in industrial conditions that will prove too violent.

UNDER LINCOLN'S PORTRAIT.

Russian Nobleman Spoke to a Chicago Audience on Siberian Exile.

CHICAGO, April 24.—Sir Michael Mevendorf, the Polish nobleman who was liberated from Siberian exile at the request of the United States government in 1865, was the guest of the Union League club last evening and was heard upon Russian prisoners and Siberian exile. He is the only political prisoner ever allowed his liberty by the czar. It was through the intercession of Abraham Lincoln, one month before his assassination, that Sir Michael was allowed to come to this country, and he spoke last night under the portrait of Lincoln.

Minister Willis at Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—Albert S. Willis, minister from this country to the Hawaiian Islands, arrived from Honolulu yesterday. He says he is in ill health, and with his family will go to his old home in Louisville to spend his three months' leave of absence. He denied absolutely the stories that he is persona non grata with the Hawaiian people or government and says he was not summoned to Washington upon any complaint of the Hawaiian government.

WITHDREW REQUEST

Cuban Resolution Gives Way to the Indian Bill.

BILL AS AMENDED WAS PASSED.

Senate Passed Several Minor Bills—One For a Bridge Across the Missouri at Boonville, Mo.—House Wants Information Regarding the Arrest of Rev. Diaz In Cuba—Pension Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Several minor bills were passed at the opening of the senate yesterday including the bill authorizing a bridge across the Missouri river at Boonville, Mo.

Prior to taking up the Indian bill Mr. Call asked for an agreement by which the senate would take up his resolution directing the president to dispatch a naval force to Cuba for the protection of American interests there, but, on appeals not to interrupt the Indian bill, withdrew his request, stating that he would call up his resolution later.

The Indian bill was then taken up, the question being on Mr. Platt's amendment extending the services of the Dawes commission with a view to the making of a roll of the Cherokee and kindred nations. The commission is given directions toward terminating the tribal relations of the Indians and dividing their lands in severalty.

After considerable debate the presiding officer ruled the entire amendment out on the point of order made by Mr. Walthall (Dem., Miss.) that it contemplated "general legislation." Several minor amendments were made to the bill, the most important being the insertion of the item—$1,900,000 for payment of the Cherokee outfit fund, which had been struck out by the committee. The Indian appropriation bill as amended was then passed. The sundry civil appropriation bill was then taken up with the agreement that it should not displace, except temporarily, the bond resolution.

Bills were passed for an additional circuit judge in the Sixth judicial district; appropriating $500,000 for a public building at Salt Lake City and $188,000 for a public building at Ogden, Utah; for the disposal of the abandoned Fort Shaw military reservation, Montana, under the homestead and mining laws.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The house yesterday on motion of Mr. Talbot (Dem., S. C.) unanimously adopted a resolution calling on the secretary of state for all information relative to the arrest and imprisonment in Cuba of Rev. Diaz. Consideration of the Pickler general pension bill was resumed and Mr. McClellan (Dem., N. Y.) spoke in opposition to the measure as intended as a Republican sop to the soldiers and a reflection on the administration of the pension laws by the present executive officers.

Pounds Are a Township Charge.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 24.—In response to injury, the assistant attorney general says that the expense of erecting pounds for the custody of domestic animals found running at large in violation of law is a proper township charge, and should be paid by the supervisor on bills certified to him by the commissioner of highways out of the general township fund. The supervisor can be compelled to draw his order upon the general township fund for the same.

National Ethical Congress.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—In response to a call issued by the St. Louis Society For Ethical Culture, the societies of Milwaukee, Chicago, New York and Philadelphia have sent delegates here to the first national ethical congress ever held. In addition visitors and delegates from other cities are expected. The congress, which met in the west hall of the museum of fine arts yesterday, will continue in session until Sunday evening.

Said She "Made So Much Trouble."

CHICAGO, April 23.—James Culbertson, an ex-city employee, last night shot and killed his wife and then sent a bullet into his own heart. He is in the hospital and will die. The couple have lived unhappily and Mrs. Culbertson left her husband some time ago. He had repeatedly threatened to kill her because, as he said, she "made so much trouble."

Greeneville, Mo. at Work.

MEADVILLE, Pa., April 24.—Yesterday afternoon at a place about two miles south of here Edward Karleskind shot his wife in the head three times and then cut his own throat. Both are dead. The only witness of the tragedy was the couple's 3-year-old girl. Jealousy was the cause of the trouble.

Started the Fire With Conoil.

CLEVELAND, April 24.—The wife of Mrs. Herman Schaernitzka, a wood carver, tried to kindle a fire last evening with the aid of conoil. The oil exploded, burning her and two of her children, 5 and 3 years old, who were clinging to her skirts, so badly that they will probably die.

WILL THEY FIGHT?

Dan Stuart Makes Corbett and Fitzsimmons a Good Offer.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Dan Stuart of Texas, who has been in New York the last month arranging plans to bring Corbett and Fitzsimmons together in the ring, has invited the two boxers or their representatives to meet him tomorrow to sign articles of agreement. Stuart will offer a purse of $12,000 for a glove contest to be held some time during November of this year, and will guarantee to furnish a battleground where a fight can be held without interference, or forfeit the entire purse to the principals. He will post one-third of the amount of the purse when the articles are signed and the balance on Sept. 15, when a meeting will be held for the purpose of selecting a referee and a final stakeholder. Brady, Corbett's manager, has received a telegram from the latter authorizing him to sign Stuart's articles.

Fitz's Manager Don't Want To.

CINCINNATI, April 24.—Martin Julian is playing Fitzsimmons here this week. They were shown the dispatch from New York about Dan Stuart inviting the boxers to meet him tomorrow to sign articles of agreement, said he had wired Dan Stuart that neither he or Fitzsimmons would be there and that Fitzsimmons would not recognize Corbett in his class until the latter had fought Slavin, Maher or Choyinski.

Young Elkhart Man Charged With Forgery—Experiment on Cataleptic Patients Proves Successful—Child Dies From Burns Received—Glass Workers to Hold a Joint Meeting—Notes.

ARLINGTON, Ind., April 24.—The meanest man has just left traces of his work here, and as a consequence Elder Sellers is going about in his old clothes. The good man came here from Ravishville to baptize a half dozen converts in the Little Blue river. He went into Farmer Houston's barn and exchanged his best Sunday clothes for a less pretentious outfit. While he was in the water wrestling with the converts some unmitigated scamp took the minister's clothes from a fencepost where they were hanging and escaped. In the clothes were a fine gold watch, a sum of money and other valuables. Elder Sellers believes there is a great field for evangelists in this section of the state, but suggests that they carry a portable wardrobe, secured by a time and burglar proof lock.

CATALEPSY TREATMENT.

Remarkable Results From the Thyroid Glands of Sheep.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 24.—Early in March the medical world was interested in an account of the remarkable results obtained by Superintendent Joseph G. Rogers, of the Northern Indiana Hospital for the Insane, in the treatment of two cataleptic patients with a preparation made from the thyroid glands of the sheep. There have been two patients afflicted with catalepsy in the hospital ever since it was established—one case that of a man who went into a trance over three years ago. During this time he lay on his back with his eyes half open, an occasional winking being the only indication of life. The other case was that of a man who possessed power of locomotion part of the time only.

Dr. Rogers began to experiment with the two men and both commenced to improve, and now the latter is entirely recovered and the result is so gratifying in the case of the former that the doctor expects ultimate recovery.

Arrested For Forgery.

KENDALVILLE, Ind., April 24.—J. L. Leiminger of Elkhart, a son of a gum manufacturer and a well known young man of that city, has been arrested here on the charge of forgery. He assumed the name of J. C. Davis of Chicago, and when arrested confessed that he was wanted in that city for forgery.

COATES CONFESSES.

He Tells an Acquaintance How He "Fixed" Mr. Lawrence.

HOLLAND, Mich., April 24.—Coates and Mrs. Lawrence were brought back here yesterday. They waived examination and were bound over to the circuit court for trial and were taken to the county jail at Grand Haven. While at the jail here Coates confessed to an acquaintance that he had committed the murder, but remarked that it was too late to be sorry. He says he crept down stairs when Lawrence was asleep and then "fixed him." He said he carried Lawrence's body to the bridge with a horse and sulky and threw it from the bridge into the river. He stated that when he should have a chance to talk to the city marshal alone he would tell him all about it. Coates admits that he is a brother of Mrs. Lawrence, but the latter says Coates was only an adopted child. He was very nervous and it is believed he will break down. Mrs. Lawrence is quite composed.

ATROCIOUS CRIME.

Robbers Stab a Louisiana Merchant Fifty-Two Times.

LAFAYETTE, La., April 24.—There has been committed in this parish a crime which for fiendishness and atrocity surpasses anything in the history of Lafayette. Martin Bognaud, a merchant at Scott, was found dead in bed with his hands and feet securely tied and his mouth gagged. Investigation disclosed the object of the foul deed. The safe was empty. Some $7,000 had been taken away, leaving no doubt that the purpose of the murder was robbery. Bognaud was a prosperous business man and it was generally known in the neighborhood that he kept his money in the safe in his store amounting to about $7,000. Bloodhounds have been secured and every effort will be made to apprehend the murderers. The autopsy showed 52 stiletto wounds about his neck and breast.

EXPLODE A BOMB.

Attempt Made to Blow Up the Home of Major Albee.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 24.—A large dynamite bomb was exploded last night on the windowsill of the residence of Major George Albee, in Westville. Major Albee and the members of his family were in the house at the time, but were not injured. The shock broke all the windows in the vicinity. Immediately after the explosion Major Albee ran out of the house and saw a man running down the street. He tried to capture him, but the stranger outdistanced him. Major Albee was formerly in the United States service in Mexico and is now an inspector of arms at the Winchester Repeating Arms company and also brigadier rifle inspector of the Connecticut National Guard. It is believed that the guilty party was a man who was discharged at the Winchester company.

ENDS IN DISAGREEMENT.

Miners and Operators Failed to Reach Amicable Terms.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 24.—The conference between the miners and the Indiana block coal operators has ended in disagreement. The miners' convention appointed a committee to confer with a similar committee from the operators' organization. The committee ended their conference yesterday. The miners committee at first demanded 66 cents a ton, while the operators wanted to cut the present scale, which expires May 1, to 55 cents. After much discussion the miners agreed to accept 61 cents, but the operators' committee refused to go above 55 cents. The miners' committee reported back to the convention, which adjourned without further action.

The result will be, miners say, a strike which will begin May 1, and will affect 6,000 men. At the Diamond mine in Clay county there are now 900 men on a strike because of local differences and the Ehrmann company's mines are idle from similar causes. The operators insist that the demands of the miners will be acceded to if the Illinois wage scale is increased, and no discrimination in shipping rates is made by one or two companies.

Democrats believe in partiality; republicans in fairness. Democrats chose five out of eight county candidates for office from Greencastle and the other three from two townships. Eleven townships have no representation whatever upon their county ticket. The republicans divided as fairly as possible. Eight townships are represented by eight candidates. The offices are distributed and Greencastle gets but one—all she is entitled to. Voter think of this between now and November!

DELEGATES to the state convention in many counties are holding meetings to caucus over the coming meeting. It would be well for Putnam to do the same so that when the delegates go to Indianapolis they will have more opportunity to look around and watch the other fellows caucus.

MAJOR MCKINLEY said in his speech at Beatrice, Nebraska, in 1892, the following: "Hamilton and Madison, Jefferson and Calhoun, Clay and Webster, and Adams and Jackson always asserted and maintained the constitutionality of protection. Is Cleveland a better constitutional lawyer than Jefferson? Is Vilas more learned than Madison? Watterson more profound than Clay? Adlai Stevenson a better expounder of the constitution than Andrew Jackson? Are all of them combined safer interpreters of that great instrument than the supreme court of the United States, which has never failed when called upon to sustain the constitutionality of a protective tariff? If it is in violation of any constitution, it is not that of the United States. It is a manifest violation of the constitution of the confederate states. Possibly that is what they mean."

The rate of taxation for municipal purposes is $1 on the $100. This yields an annual revenue of about $30,000. This rate is less by from 15 to 25 cents than any neighboring city.—Crawfordsville Journal.

Greencastle, neighbor, has a better record than that. Our general purpose rate is at present ninety five cents and next year will be about eighty-five. This is something that we are proud of from the fact that democrats in Greencastle are howling around here, trying to elect their councilmen on the cry of "reform." It is a mere scheme of buncombe, however, led by a democratic councilman, who knows that Greencastle is one of the best managed cities on earth. This same democratic leader never cried "reform" when he for years occupied a fat county office. The present occupant of this same county office gets about half the salary that the councilman did and the tax rate in the county is higher. So, neighbor, we have a good government in Greencastle; a low rate and have the best of improvements.

The independent Terre Haute Tribune says. A "friend" of ex-President Harrison announces "authoritatively" that if General Harrison is drafted he will serve as the republican nominee for the presidency. In other words this "friend" of the ex-president "authoritatively" announces that General Harrison was endeavoring to deceive the public when he wrote his letter giving what purported to be his final and indefinite decision on this very subject.

REPUBLICANS of Danville nominated a town ticket this year but failed to certify to it at the proper time and place. The old officers will hold over for another year as there will be no election, the democrats having failed to even nominate a ticket.

PROBABLE SUICIDE.

Elijah Mannan, of Cloverdale Township, Found Dead.

At four o'clock yesterday Coroner E. H. Kleinbub received word to come to Cloverdale at once, that a man had been found dead. Mr. Kleinbub started as soon as possible and upon arriving at Cloverdale found that his destination was four miles further, southeast of Cloverdale. There he found Elijah Mannan, a prominent farmer, lying on the floor of his house, with a bullet hole in his heart. A revolver was near the dead man which told the story of a probable suicide. Mr. Kleinbub will hold an investigation at once.

The dead man was fifty-six years of age and has three children, two sons and a daughter. The daughter's name is Mrs. Patrick. One of the sons lived with Mr. Mannan and the other in Morgan county.

A special to the BANNER TIMES from Cloverdale says:

Elijah Mannan, a well to do farmer living four miles east of here committed suicide yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock by shooting himself through the heart with a 32 calibre revolver. He only lived a few moments after the shooting. Mr. Mannan and his son Elmer were living alone, his older son Ulysses marrying a few weeks ago. Ulysses happened to be passing his father's place and stopped to see him. When he entered the house he found his father lying near the door. He was still breathing, but never regained consciousness. Coroner Kleinbub was notified. He arrived about 6 o'clock p. m. and held an inquest which resulted in the verdict of suicide. Mr. Mannan was twice married, his last wife having died about a year ago. He was in good circumstances, owning two good farms. His neighbors were very much shocked to hear of this sad affair. It is supposed that despondency was the cause of Mr. Mannan taking his life. He had never mentioned such a thing to any one and left no note of explanation. Mr. Mannan was a member of the 71st Regt. Ind. Vols. during the late war. The funeral will be held Saturday, interment being at the Mannan burying ground in Morgan county.

There were some rumors today that it was not a case of suicide.

Bible Society Meeting.

Rev. Dr. Vigers, district agent of the American Bible society, will be in Greencastle to hold a business meeting of the Putnam County Bible society next Saturday, tomorrow, at 3:00 p. m. Nervous People find just the help they so much need, in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It furnishes the desired strength by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood, and thus builds up the nerves, tones the stomach and regulates the whole system. Read this:

"I want to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health run down, and I had the grip. After that, my heart and nervous system were badly affected, so that I could not do my own work. Our physician gave me some help, but did not cure. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon I could do all my own housework. I have taken Printer's Language.

Many people are not aware that printers have a language of their own that is almost unintelligible to the uninitiated. The following gives an idea of the printing office lingo: "Dan, put Geo. Washington on the galley and finish up that murder you commenced yesterday. Set up the ruins of Jericaneum and distribute the small-pox. Lock up Jeff Davis and slide Bob Ingersoll into the hell-box and leave the pie alone until after dinner. Put the ladies form to press and go to the devil and put him to work on Deacon Fogg's article on "Eternal punishment." Now this is all simple enough when translated into English, and not near so rough as the reader may imagine.

Almost Killed.

Bloomington Telephone.

Richard Denton, one of the oldest and best known citizens of the south part of the county, met with what may prove to be a fatal accident yesterday about noon. Mr. Denton lives with his son William, two miles south of Bloomington, and the two were hauling straw with a two horse wagon. The wagon had been loaded and Mr. Denton was riding on the rear end, when a rough place caused a jolt and he, losing his hold, fell to the ground, his head striking first. He was at once carried to the house and Dr. Lowder was summoned. Examination proved that the head and right shoulder had been injured, and that a blood vessel had been ruptured, and by the the pressure on the spine the arms and legs had become paralyzed. Mr. Denton is about 65 years old, and while he is in good health, yet the injury is of such a serious nature as to make his condition extremely critical. For a time he was unconscious, but this morning he is at himself and the indications are not unfavorable. His son at Greencastle has been summoned by telegraph.

A Brilliant Wedding.

Madison Courier, April 22.

The interior of Christ church was a bower of dowerly and fragrant beauty today upon the occasion of the marriage of Miss Agnes Hutchings, one of Madison's fair daughters, and Mr. John Zulauf, a prominent and popular young business man of Jeffersonville. The flowers used in decoration were lilacs, bridal wreath, apple, wild plum and dogwood blossoms, and among them were seen stately palms. At the hour of noon the bridal procession entered the church to the grand strains of the Wedding March from Lohengrin, sung by Mrs. Reid, the Misses Eaverson and Mr. Eck Graham, Mrs. Drayer, organist.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. W. H. Bamford. The groom, with his best man, Mr. John Read, of Jeffersonville, awaited the bride at the chancel steps. She wore a beautiful wedding gown of white satin, tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, and was a lovely vision as she walked up the aisle upon the arm of her father, Dr. W. D. Hutchings. Miss Mary Hampton, of Hunter's Bottom, was the maid of honor; the Misses Amy Rogers, Anna Friedley, Sallie Read, of Jeffersonville, and Martha Barnard, bridesmaids. Miss Hampton wore white over Nile green, a large hat with white feathers, and carried a lily of the valley bouquet; the bridesmaids were in blue and pink large hats, and carried pink roses.

A large concourse of friends was assembled in the church to witness the marriage, and among them forty or more friends of the groom from Jeffersonville. The wedding reception took place at the Hutchings' residence on Third street, immediately following the marriage. The newly wedded pair left upon the afternoon train for New York, from whence they sail on the twenty-fifth for a Continental tour.

NOT TO TESTIFY.

Walling Will not Appear Against Scott Jackson.

An attorney who is well able to speak says that Alonzo Walling will not be put upon the witness stand. Both the prosecution and the defense are afraid to call Jackson's room-mate and fellow student to the witness stand. The situation is a peculiar one.

"There was an agreement among the various lawyers before the trial," said the attorney Thursday, "that Walling would not be called. You see, if the prosecution calls him, he is likely to block their game at the last moment. He might testify to something that would upset all plans—something that would cause a reasonable doubt in the minds of the jury and acquit Jackson." "The defense will not call Walling," he continued, "because they must let the prosecution cross-examine him, and with the intimate knowledge which he must have of all that Jackson did in the part he played in the death of Pearl Bryan, they are not willing to subject him to a searching examination by the state's lawyer. Consequently, the understanding that Walling is not to appear will not be broken."

The conferences which Attorney S. C. Crawford and Attorney W. C. Sheppard frequently held at their table in the court room have caused alert spectators to comment. No move seems to be taken without the consent of both Jackson's and Walling's lawyers. The outside attorneys say the defense of the two men is so similar that every effort is being made to keep two trials in mind while only one is in progress.

Prospects of either man taking the stand against the other are regarded as dim and distant.

The High School Seniors.

The seniors were surprised very pleasantly yesterday by an invitation from their class-mate, Miss Myrtle Ridpath, to take a hay ride with her in the evening in honor of her seventeenth birthday. The evening came and a more delightful ride cannot be imagined, with the songs and yells of about thirty-five voices rending the air. Everybody was thoroughly enjoying themselves and trying to make some noise when suddenly a shower of eggs and potatoes was felt and some boys were seen starting up an alley. Every boy but one jumped from the wagon and started in pursuit in a seconds time but only got near enough to recognize some of the cowards. These may think "shot dog" before they hear the last of this little episode, and it is supposed they were exceedingly warm before the '96's gave up the chase.

Some excitement was caused as there were a number in the wagon that were hit. One girl was hurt and several persons were hit about the head. The clothes of several suffered severely. Nevertheless, those heathenish boys did not stop the hayride nor the fun. About nine o'clock the class returned to Dr. Ridpath's residence where a royal time was had. Light refreshments were served, and favors, of hay tied with the class colors, were given. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and conversation. The "bear dance" by Earl Lane and Jimmy Cannon was a treat to all.

At a late hour class and teachers left, happy and jubilant, wishing Miss Myrtle many happy returns of the evening.

J. M. Keller Nominated.

The Joint representative convention did not get down to business yesterday until about 3:30 o'clock. The Montgomery crowd held a caucus and decided to support the Clay candidate. That gave the Clay man the majority and no other name was presented to the convention, he being nominated by acclamation. Mr. Keller is a farmer, living four miles south of Brazil. He was present yesterday.

ODDS AND ENDS.

How to Make Delicious Dishes Out of Scraps. Points on Economy.

Yesterday Mrs. Ewing gave a lesson upon how to make dainty and delicious dishes out of "Odds and Ends." This is something that so often worries the economical cook.

The left-overs of cold broiled beef-steak, veal chops or stewed chicken may be converted into hash by mixing equal portions of the meat, cut in bits, and cold potatoes also cut in pieces. A small amount of chicken broth or cream is added, but never water or grease. Season with salt and pepper and place in a battered pan over the fire and cook until brown. Meats, bread and hash should be well browned, as the browning aids in digestion.

The highest art in cooking is that which brings out the best flavor of the article cooked. When a dish is prepared in which only the whites of the eggs are used, the yolks may be emptied whole from the shell into a pan of boiling water and cooked. They may then be used in hash and salad or used with a white sauce.

Mrs. Ewing plainly expressed her non-approval of using liquors as a flavor in sauces. Cod-fish balls, chicken croquettes, creamed potatoes and creamed eggs were delicious dishes prepared by Mrs. Ewing before the class.

The last lesson of the series will be given today.

Emmett Gray has brought suit in the Putnam circuit court against William Masten for slander. The complaint as filed by Lewis & Corwin, attorneys, alleges that the defendant said concerning the "hold up" of young Harry Talbott on March 15, 1896, in the college campus, the following false, slanderous, malicious and defamatory words:
"The man who did it (meaning the man who committed said robbery) is not far off." "There was a large man and a small man, and I could put my hands on the large man there" (at the same time indicating and pointing at the residence of the plaintiff.) "I will name no names but you can guess about right," then and thereby naming, and intending to mean, and then and there and thereby being understood to mean, that the plaintiff was guilty of the crime of robbery.
The plaintiff further claims his good name, fame and reputation is injured and damaged to the extent of $5,000, asking judgment for that amount.

Violon Cream

A lovely complexion only Nature can give. She gives it to clear and soft skin to those who use Dr. Hebra's Viola Cream. It is not a paint or powder to cover defects. It gets rid of them, by Nature's own process of renewing the vitality of the skin; banishing all roughness, redness, freckles, moles, pimples, blackheads, sun burn and tan. It does this surely and harmlessly, because naturally. Its use means both skin beauty and skin health. Viola Skin-Soap hastens the process, because it is a pure and delicate soap. It should be used in connection with the Cream. It should be used in the nursery, too. Ordinary soaps are not fit for a baby's skin. Viola Cream, 50 cents. Viola Skin-Soap, 25 cents. Sold by drugists or sent by mail. Send to G. C. BITTNER CO., TOLEDO, O.

Newly Made Bride Runs Away.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 24.—William Dygert of Elkhart has notified the police here of the sudden disappearance of his bride of seven weeks. Dygert and his wife came to South Bend en route to Michigan. They spent the night at the Grand Trunk depot, and his wife, saying she wanted to visit some friends, left him, promising soon to return. She has not been seen since by him, but a policeman saw her taken a train for Michigan. She was formerly Miss Cora Brant of this city.

Poorhouse Contract Awarded.

SULLIVAN, Ind., April 24.—The contract for building the new county poorhouse was awarded yesterday to George T. Briggs of this place. His bid was $18,000.

Have Deserted the Army.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Captain David Arthur Johns, private secretary to Commander Booth Tucker, has tendered his resignation as a Salvation Army officer. Lieutenant L. I. Kirk, head of the military department, and Staff Captain Walton, chief of the tailoring department of the Salvation Army, also handed in their resignations. They have all united with Ballington Booth's "Volunteers."

Made Insane by Religion.

TUSCULA, Ill., April 24.—William E. Price, for several years surveyor of Douglas county, has been adjudged insane and sent to the asylum. A few days ago he attended a revival at Carmargo and became so deeply affected that it unbalanced his mind. He is the Republican nominee for surveyor, and a new nomination will be made.

Architecture.

The American student to whom the mysteries of architecture are made clear in Paris or New York forgets what was the former sanctity of his art. Mr. Herbert Spencer shows conclusively that the professional architect of thousands of years ago was the priest. Early architecture sprang from ancestral worship, and ancestral worship was the oldest of all beliefs. The graves of the departed had first to be preserved. The embellishment came afterward; thence the calling of the architect became sacred. The relic had to be preserved within an elaborate shrine. At first it might have been that the erection of a tomb called forth a certain amount of skill, and soon the temple followed the tomb. Mentahol's hieroglyphic inscription that "the chief architect was promoted and became a priest" shows the merging of the two callings.

"I am a great architect," says King Bekenkhonsu, "and I was a holy father of Amun for 12 years." Sometimes the architect in Egypt was also a general. Herbert Spencer shows how a special skill among a primitive people was always supposed by them to be derived from some supernatural power. There must have been amazement when the first arch was sprung. Coming down nearer to our own time, even to the tenth century, we know that abbots and priests were the architects. There is evidence that in Raphael's age Pope Leo appointed an aged friar as an assistant in the building of St. Peter's. It was very much nearer to our day when the clerical architect gave up his task, leaving the constructive part to the master builder, and from the master builder came the modern architect.

Etiquette of Audiences.

A question of the etiquette of audiences arose once in New York when the Symphony society's concert was given. Mr. Joseffy played the second Brahms concerto, which threw the audience into a state of intense enthusiasm. He was called out a dozen times, and yet the audience persisted in its applause. Finally Mr. Damrosch, the conductor, made as if to proceed with the programme, but the audience kept up their applause. Mr. Damrosch waved his baton and began the next number. The sounds of the orchestra were drowned, however, by the noise of the audience. Mr. Damrosch then rapped sharply upon his desk, and the musicians and the audience both became silent. He turned to the audience and gave them a sharp rebuke for the manner in which they had conducted themselves, saying to them that to ask a pianist, no matter how much he might have pleased them, to add to his exhausting labors after playing such a concerto was neither an appreciation of his art nor an evidence of good manners. The audience very sensibly accepted the rebuke, and the performance went on.

Interruptions by the Court.

Lord Chief Justice Erle was prone to interrupt counsel when it was found that the judges had already made up their minds against him. On one occasion Mr. Bovill, Q. C., soon afterward made a judge, was stopped with: "Here we stand, we four men, and we have all firmly (emphasizing the adverb) made up our minds that there must be a new trial, but if you think it worth your while going on after that (playfully), why of course we'll keep on hearing you." Whereupon the Q. C. laughingly sat down.

On another occasion he again interrupted with "I beg to inform the counsel there is a time in the mind of every man at which he lets down the floodgates of his understanding and allows not one more drop to enter, and that time, in my mind, has fully arrived."

He Wanted to Ride.

"Wait a minute, mister; I want to ride up," said a toddling, ragged little codger to an elevator operator in the Madison building yesterday evening. "Get in," replied the manipulator of levers and compressed air.

When they reached the thirteenth floor and the child had called no number, the elevator man asked:

"Where do you want to go to, boy?"

"Way up to the top."

At the top he made no move to get out.

"Well, where did you want to go?"

"Down."

"How far down?"

"Way down to the bottom."

"Oh! You just wanted to ride?"

"Yeth. Didn't I say I wanted to ride?"—Chicago News.

Avoid Purple Ink.

The purple ink fad seems to be spreading. It is of all correspondence fads, the most disagreeable.

To read many pages written in this glittering, shining color is enough to give the reader an attack of mental prostration as well as to precipitate blindness.

The faculty which purple ink possesses of growing positively alive and making all the curves of letters seem like wriggling snakes is something remarkable and something which should banish purple ink from polite correspondence.—Strand Magazine.

Experience Teaches.

A gentle Quaker had two horses, a very good and a very bad one. When seen riding the latter, it turned out that his better half had taken the good one.

"What!" said a sneering bachelor. "How comes it that your wife rides the better horse?"

"Friend," replied the gentle Quaker thoughtfully, "when thee's married, thee will know."—Philadelphia Call.

In Norway the horses are broken in by women. They make pets of them first, feeding the colts out of their own hands and teaching them to follow like dogs.

The feast is such as earth, the general mother, pours from her fairest bosom when she smiles in the embrace of autumn.—Shelley.
